

EASTER WEDDINGS--ENTERTAINMENTS FOR CHARITY

Opavilla, Austen H. Fox and Bradish J. Carro, Jr.

Another dance organized by young people of society will be given in the large ballroom at Sherry's on Wednesday night for the benefit of the Home Garden Settlement. The dance is one of the fixtures of each Easter season and it brings together many of those interested in the welfare of the settlement, which is located in the Little Italy section on the upper East Side. Dancing will be the principal diversion of the evening, but for those who prefer to play bridge there will be a special room set aside. Tickets at $2 each may be obtained of Miss Isabella M. Cammann, 55 West Fifty-fourth street, or from members of the committee, which includes Miss Margaret Seton Porter, chairman, and the Misses Charlotte Strong, Margaret Trevor, Genevieve Sanford, Constance Peabody, Adrienne Iacini, Josephine L. Coster, Helen de P. Griffin, Margaret Brown, Sylvia Holt, Cornelia Van A. Chapin, Margaret Overton, Rita Surace, Cordelia Hepburn, Vera Grayth and Mary Haskell. Among the young men who will assist as members of the floor committee are J. Horton James, Harry C. Cushing 3d, F. Shelton Farr, Francis T. Henderson, Livingston Short, Watson C. T. Haman, Arthur M. Du Bois, Murray Hoffman, Francis H. Geer, Francis de L. Cunningham, Edmund Peaslee, Bernard S. Van Rensselaer and Lewis A. Coffin, Jr.

Members of the St. Christopher Children's Free Hospital for children have arranged a rainbow sale to be held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John E. Alexandre, 18 East Fifty-third street, when there will be tables decorated in the various colors of the rainbow. There will be a rainbow arab bag in charge of Mrs. Alexandre, Misses Katharine Post, Olive Gentry, Mary Stevens and Cornelia Livingston. At the French pastry table all sorts of buns, tarts and cakes will be sold by Misses Flora Whitney, Teresa Fabbri, Grace Vanderbilt, Lucy Train, Elsie Stevens and Constance Vanderbilt, while Miss Harriet Post will have charge of the tea table, with the assistance of Miss Mary Post and others.

There will be a 25 cent toy table, at which will preside the Misses May Hoppin, Rosalie Pilot and Alice Post. Mrs. Lewis G. Morris, Mrs. F. Ashton De Peyster and Miss Doris Franchin will sell dolls and Mrs. Duval will be at the art table.

Among those at other tables will be Mrs. Robert L. Fowler, Jr., Mrs. James E. Miller, Mrs. W. Warner Hoppin, Jr., Mrs. Ogden H. Hammond, Mrs. George P. Cammann, Mrs. L. Cass Ledyard, Jr., Mrs. Arthur W. Butler, Mrs. H. Pendleton Rogers, Mrs. Bayard C. Hoppin, Miss Mahel Gerry, Mrs. William Woodward, Miss Evelyn Burden, Mrs. R. Horace Gallatin, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Edward L. Tinker, Miss Ruth Cutting, Miss Ethel Zabriskie, Mrs. William Ziegler, Jr., Mrs. Charles Harkness and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney.

Tea will be served from 4 to 6 o'clock. The guild desires to raise sufficient money to support beds in the city hospital and also in its summer branch, which is in Norwood, Conn.

The third and final lecture under the auspices of artists of New York, for the benefit of families of French soldiers, will be given on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by James Barnes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clark, 962 Fifth avenue. Mr. Barnes has chosen as his subject "Back of the German Line in the First Weeks of the War." After the lecture the picture gallery of the house will be thrown open and there will be a concert of organ music before and after Mr. Barnes's address.

Among the subscribers are Mrs. William E. Shepherd, Mrs. Philip M. Lide, Mrs. Frederick B. Pratt, Mrs. Eastman Johnson, Mrs. John Clinton Gray, Mrs. J. Carroll Beckwith, Mrs. J. Kennedy Tod, Mrs. J. Amory Haskell, Mrs. George L. Gillette, Mrs. William A. Allen, Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff and Mrs. Austin Flint. Tickets may be obtained of Miss Annie Flint, 60 East Thirty-fourth street, and at the Knickerbocker Gallery.

Much interest is being shown in the children's performance of "Daddy Long-Legs" for the benefit of the Red Cross Club at the Gaiety Theatre on Friday afternoon. Among those who have taken boxes and seats are Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Joseph S. Auerbach, Mrs. John A. Dix, Mrs. John H. Hammond, Mrs. Walter B. James, Mrs. William T. Blodgett, Mrs. J. Clifton Elazar, Mrs. Harry R. Hoyt, Mrs. Hamilton Fish Keen, Bishop and Mrs. David H. Greer, Dr. and Mrs. William M. Park, Mrs. James M. Varium, Mrs. Howard Townsend, Mrs. Willard Straight, Mrs. Alfred Seton, Mrs. Daniel J. Kingsford, Mrs. Archibald G. Thacher, Mrs. William Stearns, Mrs. Robert B. Potter, Mrs. William Allen Butler, Mrs. Richard Mansfield, Miss Adeline Moller, Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Kate Cary and Miss Eleanor Cuyler. Tickets may be obtained of Miss Alice Smith, 521 Park avenue.

The flower ball to be held at the Plaza on Thursday night will be for the benefit of the International Child Welfare League and there will be some picturesque features with fancy and flower dances which are being arranged by Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth. There will be dances of other days like the gavotte, also up to date foxtrots and one steps. An amusing feature will be a parody on "Andros and the Lion" entitled "Andros and the Try-On," which will represent a scene in a dressmaking establishment. The songs to be sung in this parody have been contributed and they are of the very latest styles. Afterward they will be sold at auction.

Some of the young people who will have active parts are the Misses Margery Shannon, Amy Gilford, Anna Ballard, Frances Peck, Elsie Clapp, Elizabeth Kirin, Rhoda Turner, Margaret Warren, Frances Jolson, Barbara and Katherine Thaw, Gertrude Hamilton, Eva Ingersoll Brown, Cornelia Cammann, Caroline Wyeth, Vera de Ropp, Gabrielle Clendenin, Marguerite Seafried and Frances Montagu Ward. Marquand Walker, Felix Doubleday, J. Berry Underhill, Jr., Harold Imbrie, Edwin Gould, Jr., Theodore Bronson, McNeal Swasey, Richard MacKenzie, Knox Harding, George Mumford, Gilbert Stockton and Edward Kemp, Jr. There will be general dancing after the regular entertainment. Tickets may be obtained of Mrs. J. Brewster Macdonald, 829 Park avenue.

At the home of Mrs. William E. S. Griswold, 883 Fifth avenue, on Thursday afternoon will be held an opportunity shop to aid the employment bureau in East 104th street. This bureau has supplied work to 250 needy men and women in carpentry, rug making, pottery and sewing, and the work of these artisans will be on sale. There will also be a tea room. Some of those to be in charge of the tables are Mrs. Thomas E. Satterthwaite, Mrs. Henry P. Davidson, Mrs. Robert E. Tod, Mrs. James R. Sherford, Mrs. Robert J. Jenks, Mrs. George W. Cray, the Misses Josephine De Gersdorff, Isabella Banks Taylor, Mary Stevens Chapin, Louise Russell Hoadley, Sylvia Hyde, Margaret Lay Farner, Sylvia Holt, Mary Chapman Edgar, Isabel Foote and Ellen Marvin.

Great interest is being manifested in the Polish fête and carnival called "A Night in Poland" which will be given in the arcade ballroom of the Baltimore on Thursday night under the auspices of the American Polish Relief Committee of New York, of which James Marcella Sembrich is president. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the fund for the relief of Polish non-combatant women and children made destitute by the war. Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. J. Sergeant Crum, Mrs. Price Post, Mrs. J. Dymally Prince, Mrs. Frederick Y. Dalziel and others will pose in the tableaux and take part in the pageant. There will be reproductions of life in Poland, with beautiful costumes and dances of every sort from the Krakowiak of the people about Cracow to the Mazur of the nobles. There will be choruses of Polish music selected by Ernest Schell-Ling and Stanislaw Stojowski, and scenes in the tableaux will be representative of the peasant life in the mountains of Poland during ancient times.

Rehearsals for the tableaux and pageant have been going on under the direction of Richard Ordynski, famous stage manager of Max Reinhardt's theatre in Berlin. The groups in the pageant are in charge of Mrs. J. Dymally Prince, Mrs. Frederick Y. Dalziel and Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton. At the first group, representing the days of King Mieszko, the first Polish King converted to Christianity, will be Mrs. Prince, Mrs. Burden, Mrs. Post, Mrs. Crum, Albert Herter Phoenix Ingraham, Maurice Roche and Dudley Carleton. The second group, headed by Miss Hamilton, is devoted to the deeds of King Casimir, who founded the first Polish university at Cracow. The figures will be represented by Lawrence White, Frederick King, Philip Cusack, Johnston Redmond and Charles S. Brown, Jr.

Miss Mary Pyle will lead the group representing King Jagiello, who reigned over Poland in the fifteenth century, and the characters will be played by Scott Pyle, George Henry Warren, Jr., Lawrence S. Butler, Hunter Marston, Robert Hartshorne and Walter Damsch, a Lithuanian song of the sixteenth century will be sung by a chorus in this group. Mrs. Dalziel's group will include characters of King Sobieski's time. In this group will be the figures of Mrs. Louise Robe, Mary Sara and Olga Wilkora; Dudley Carleton, Frank N. Doubleday and Grosvener Atterbury.

Mme. Sembrich will take an active part in all the choruses of Polish music, and she will also sing duets with Adamo Didur of the Metropolitan Opera Company. The fête will close with a Polish wedding scene, and the bride and bridegroom will be represented by Miss Beatrix Buel and Gerald Opavilla. M. Stengel Sembrich will be the father of the bride, and others in the bridal party will be Mme. Sembrich, Mr. Didur and W. T. Benda. The pageant will conclude with dances in which amateurs of society will take part. Afterward there will be general dancing, and while a large number of persons will be in costume this will not be at all obligatory. Nahon Frank's orchestra will play. Tickets at $5 each, including supper, may be obtained at the headquarters of the American Polish Relief Committee, 14 East Fifty-seventh street, or at the Baltimore. Checks must be made payable to W. Franklin Paris, chairman of arrangements.

In the music room of the Baltimore on the same evening a subscription dance will be given for the benefit of the Home Thrift Association, an organization formed for the purpose of interesting boys and girls in the various subjects of industrial training. For a time the organization used the Gracie Mansion, which had been loaned by the city as a place where classes in domestic science, carpentry and other classes could be taught, but as this building is being torn down new quarters must be obtained, and the proceeds of the dance will be devoted to this purpose. For the present the classes are being conducted at the Home Arts Club. Conrad's orchestra will play for dancing. Tickets at $2.50 each may be had on application to Mrs. Henry Schiewind, Jr., 8 East Seventy-ninth street. Among the patronesses are Miss L. Channoy McKeever, Hugh A. Murray, Robert Sturgis, Dudley Phelps, Goddard Du Bois, George G. Mason, Victor Morawetz, George A. Lembeck, Donald W. Brown, Henry Bischoff, William H. Andrews and William G. McCune.

Several dinners will be given in advance of the entertainment, which will be followed by general dancing. Tickets are $5 each and they may be obtained of Miss Elsie Nicol, 52 Park avenue; Mrs. Robert L. Bacon, 75 Park avenue; and Miss Harriet Alexander, 4 West Fifty-eighth street.
